British Breeding Silent Auction of Stallion Nominations 2021

Fundraising for RIDERS MINDS

Terms & Conditions

1. All proceeds of the nominations that are made available in the silent auction supports the Riders Minds organisation.
2. Nominations to the auction have been made by generous stallion owners around the UK.
3. All nominations will state the terms of the covering and any additional costs relating to collection fees and transport.
4. The stallion owner/breeding facility and winning bidder will make all breeding arrangements. Neither Breeding British or Riders Minds are responsible for booking dates or any additional fees associated with this breeding.
5. Starting bids will not be accepted below half the value of the stallions advertised fee.
6. The stallion auction will close at midday (GMT) on Saturday 20th March 2021.
7. All highest bidders must ensure that they are contactable either in person or via phone shortly after midday on the day of the silent auction.
8. The highest bidder of each nomination will have 28 days after being notified to pay the full amount bid to Riders Minds.
9. In the event that the highest bidder does not make the payment deadline, the second highest bidder will be contacted and will have the option to accept the nomination at the highest bid they placed. They shall be required to pay Riders Minds within 28 days of being notified and accepting in writing.
10. All additional costs relating to collection fees, postage etc must be paid directly to the stallion owner.

11. The stallion owner will be notified once Riders Minds have received the full amount of the winning bid and will not release any semen until this time.
12. Please be aware some stallion owners may only collect certain days of the week. Most require a 24-48 hours notice before shipping chilled or frozen semen.
13. If a mare is to be sent to a stud for natural cover, she must be swabbed beforehand according to that stud's own terms and conditions.
